Risk and Reward Profile

- The risk category above is not a measure of capital loss or gains, but of how significant the rises and falls in the Fund's return have been historically.
- For example a fund whose return has experienced significant rises and falls will be a higher risk category, whereas, a fund whose return has experienced less significant rises and falls will be in a lower risk category.
- Although the Fund is in the lowest risk category, this does not mean it is a risk free investment.
- As the Fund's risk category has been calculated using historical data, it may not be a reliable indication of the Fund's future risk profile.
- The Fund is in risk category 1 as its return has experienced very low rises and falls historically.
- Please note that the Fund's risk category may change in the future.

Below are risks that you should be aware of that may result in a loss or reduction in the value of your investments.

- The value of the Fund assets may go up or down and the income from them will vary. Your full investment may not be returned to you.
- Interest rate risk: changes in interest rates can result in positive or negative short-term fluctuations in the value of the assets held by the Fund.
- Credit risk: the credit ratings assigned to the individual assets in the Fund can weaken, so causing the value of those assets to fall.
- Liquidity risk: the ability to buy and sell assets typically held in the Fund can be impaired in adverse market conditions.
